SAMMONS CABARET NOV. 15 TRIBUTE TO GLEN CAMPBELL TO ADDRESS ALZHEIMER'S, THE 6th LEADING CAUSE OF DEATH IN USA

WHAT: The Sammons Cabaret concert featuring respected singer/guitarist Tony Hakim takes on special meaning during National Alzheimer's Disease Awareness Month. Hakim's sold-out concert is a tribute to Glen Campbell, the beloved singer/guitarist whose accolades included six Grammys and whose hits included "Wichita Lineman" and "Galveston." Campbell died of Alzheimer's in 2017.

Representatives of the Dallas & Northeast Texas Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association will be on hand to provide information about Alzheimer's and ways Cabaret patrons can support efforts to treat, prevent and, ultimately, cure the disease that affects more than 380,000 Texans.

WHEN: Thursday, November 15, 2018, 8:00 p.m.

WHERE: Sammons Center for the Arts, 3630 Harry Hines Boulevard, Dallas

WHO: The nonprofit Sammons Center for the Arts, which opened in 1988 in the historic Turtle Creek Pump Station, is home to 14 local performing arts organizations. It also provides administrative, operational and educational resources to its resident groups and more than 90 other nonprofit cultural organizations. For more information, visit www.sammonsartcenter.org.

Currently, more than 380,000 Texans live with Alzheimer's disease. Over 1.4 million provide 1.6 billion hours of unpaid care in Texas. The Dallas & Northeast Texas Chapter serves more than 30 counties with education and support to all those facing Alzheimer's and other dementias, including those living with the disease, caregivers, health care professionals and families. The Chapter is also committed to advocating for the needs and rights of those facing Alzheimer's and to advancing research toward methods of treatment, prevention and ultimately, a cure.
