SAMMONS CENTER REDEFINES ARTS & CRAFTS SEPT. 27, 2019 2nd Annual Brews Bites & Beats Highlights Craft Beers, Food, Music

DALLAS/August 26, 2019 — The Sammons Center for the Arts, 3630 Harry Hines Boulevard, reprises Brews Bites & Beats on Friday, September 27, 2019, after a sold-out inaugural event last year. Featuring craft brews, food and music, the event begins at 7 p.m. with samples from Stone Brewing Co., TUPPS Brewery, Wild Acre Brewing Company, Civil Pour, Ellen's, Nothing Bundt Cakes, Ruth's Chris Steak House, Scardello Artisan Cheese, Snooze An A.M. Eatery, Sushi Axiom and The Empanada Cookhouse. Local bandleader Stockton Helbing and his group take the stage at 8:45 p.m. to perform "Famous Beats in Pop History."

"We were thrilled at the response to the first Brews Bites and Beats," said Joanna St. Angelo, Sammons Enterprises Executive Director. "Guests can enjoy a fun and entertaining evening while they learn about our beautiful historic building and our impact on the local arts scene."

Admission is $20 and includes valet parking, food, music, nonalcoholic beverages and a beer tasting card valid for up to 24 ounces. Additional full pours of the three featured craft beers may be purchased during the event for $5 each. For tickets, visit www.sammonsartcenter.org or call the center at (214) 520-7788. All major credit cards are accepted. Brews, Bites & Beats is a 21+ event; a valid government-issued ID is required for entry.

About the Sammons Center for the Arts

The Sammons Center for the Arts was founded in 1981 to renovate the historic Turtle Creek Pump Station, built in 1909 at 3630 Harry Hines Boulevard, and operate it as a multipurpose arts center. After several years of renovation, the Sammons Center opened March 1, 1988. A 501(c)(3) organization, the Sammons Center provides low-cost office, rehearsal, performance and meeting space as well as administrative resources to arts organizations representing every discipline. It is home to 14 performing arts organizations and serves another 90 arts and community organizations. For more information, call (214) 520-7788 or visit www.sammonsartcenter.org.
