THE SELKIE GIRLS BRING “CRAIC AGUS CEOIL” TO SAMMONS CENTER MARCH 25, 2022 Tickets for Sammons Discovery Concert on Sale Now

DALLAS/March 7, 2022 — The Sammons Center for the Arts, 3630 Harry Hines Boulevard in Dallas, presents local Celtic favorite The Selkie Girls on Friday, March 25, in a long-awaited Sammons Discovery concert. The craic agus ceoil (Irish for good music and fun) begins at 8 p.m.; doors open at 7:30 p.m. Admission is $40 and includes beverages, snacks and valet parking.

Named after the mythological Celtic creatures who live in the sea as seals, but walk on land as humans, The Selkie Girls captivate audiences with unique instrumentation, lush harmonies, and lively folk music arrangements. The group features Alli Johnson on vocals and guitar; Jaycie Skidmore on vocals, flutes, and penny whistles; Dave Ervin on vocals, guitar, and mandolin; Joel Black on upright and fretless acoustic bass; Martin McCall on percussion; and Linda Mudd on harp.

“We originally scheduled this concert for fall 2020, but like so many events, it was postponed due to the pandemic,” said Executive Director Joanna St. Angelo. “We are delighted and lucky to finally present these extraordinary artists at the Sammons Center.”

Tickets may be purchased by calling the Sammons Center at (214) 520-7788 or online at www.sammonsartcenter.org.

About the Sammons Center for the Arts

The Sammons Center for the Arts was founded in 1981 to renovate the historic Turtle Creek Pump Station, built in 1909 at 3630 Harry Hines Boulevard, and operate it as a multipurpose arts center. After several years of renovation, the Sammons Center opened March 1, 1988. A 501(c)(3) organization, the Sammons Center is home to 15 performing arts groups representing dance, theater, orchestral music and choral music. It provides low-cost office, rehearsal, audition, meeting, workshop and performance space as well as administrative, operational and educational resources to its resident groups and more than 90 other nonprofit cultural organizations. For more information, call (214) 520-7788 or visit www.sammonsartcenter.org.
